Dear Parent/Guardian,

I am Anita-Praise Nweke, a Med Creative Education Course student at the Royal College of Art. As part of my studies, I am conducting a project titled "Exploring Perspectives on Cultural Pedagogy: Insights from Students and Teachers in Educational Settings."

Your child is invited to participate in an after-school art club where they can express their cultural identity through art and learn about other students' cultural diversity. If you consent to your child participating, this will involve:

- Participation in after-school art club sessions.
- Observations during the sessions to understand students' engagement and cultural expression.
- Fun, interactive workshops using Post-it notes to create digital collages and drawings.
- Filming, taking pictures, and audio recording during the sessions.

Participation Details:

- Date: Tuesday, 11th June 2024
- Time: After school until 5:00 PM
- Collection: Please ensure timely collection of your child at 5:00 PM.

Participation is entirely voluntary, and you can withdraw your child from the study at any time. All collected information will be confidential and securely stored. Individual information will be destroyed once analysed.

- Confidentiality: No individual will be identified in any reports.
- Permission: Images, videos, or quotes will only be used with your express permission.

If you have any concerns or wish to know the outcome of this project, please contact my supervisor, Chris Mitchell, at the above address.

Thank you for your interest.
